He was born in Brooklyn, NY, but grew up in Japan. That's why they call him...

This powerful one-man show addresses the enigma of cultural, racial, and ethnic identity. Using brilliant imagery, Arboleda tells his compelling personal story about race, denial, culture, immigration and transformation. This fast-paced show will make you laugh and cry in the same moment, while triggering empathy with the drama of struggling with one's identity in a divided world. Having toured the US extensively, compelling thousands to reconsider the meaning of race, culture and identity in their personal lives, Ethnic Man!® is a proven, positive, non-confrontational program designed to shed light on the issues of diversity, multiculturalism and the American identity crisis.

Teja's various unique, well-researched, diversity awareness/critical thinking programs have had a positive impact on thousands of people around the United States. He has received numerous standing ovations from audiences nationwide, including: The National Association for Multicultural Education (NAME), National Association for Campus Activities (NACA) and TESOL.

Teja Arboleda, M.Ed., is an Emmy Award –winner (1993), television producer, director, author, actor and college professor.

He has created nationally recognized educational programs including Diversity Elementary™, RaceOff™, Got Race, and Crossing The Line. His live performances include Healing Racism and Crossing The Line: Comedians, Politicians & Shock Jocks. He is the author of In The Shadow of Race.
