

RUSH TO JUDGMENT

Rush to Judgment Finding the Truth in a Viral World.

EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEWS & CONTENT

Rush to Judgment examines issues confronted in the documentary of the same name. It all started with a brief encounter at the Lincoln Memorial that resulted in a viral video and social media mayhem.

Then came death threats and hate directed at teenagers from Covington Catholic High School who came face-to-face with adult protesters.

What can journalists and media consumers learn from this case and what does it tell us about the current divide in American politics?

The lecture features director Steve Oldfield and producer Ryan Anderson examining these and other important issues concerning today's viral media mashing up with the news media.

Steve & Ryan are committed to helping students, consumers, journalists, and content producers learn from this encounter.
