

Election 2016

HOW WILL YOU DECIDE?

By the end of the presidential election you will know whether the candidates wear boxers or briefs, who they've slept with and the name of their dog or cat. You'll know if they ever smoked dope, dodged the draft or were stupid enough – like John Edwards – to have an affair with a campaign aide while bragging about his wonderful marriage to a woman diagnosed with cancer.

But how do you know what to believe? How do you figure out when you're being manipulated, lied to or misled by either the media, the candidates or both?

Separating the wheat from the chaff of political news takes an expert. Join TV pundit and historian Rick Shenkman on a romp through American politics and you'll never be a victim of political bull again.

SEVEN HABITS OF HIGHLY EFFECTIVE VOTERS

- ✓ 1. DON'T BELIEVE WHAT ANYONE SAYS ON THE CAMPAIGN TRAIL.
Remember, politicians tell you what they think you want to hear. They don't take their promises seriously – why should you?
- ✓ 2. WATCH THE NEWS AS IF IT WERE A SCENE OUT OF ALICE IN WONDERLAND.
Think talking rabbits are weird? What politicians say on the campaign trail can be even more bizarre.
- ✓ 3. RUN WHEN YOU HEAR THE POLITICIANS SOUND HUMBLE.
Al Gore liked to tell audiences that he plowed muddy fields on his grandpappy's farm. He forgot to mention that he went to a private prep school and his daddy was a powerful United States senator.
- ✓ 4. NEVER PAY ANY ATTENTION TO THE CLAIM THAT CANDIDATES ARE RUNNING TO HELP THE COUNTRY.
Sure, they want to help the country, but they're running because they want to be in a position of power.
- ✓ 5. BE SUSPICIOUS WHEN THEY SAY THEY'RE HEALTHY.
Candidates have told more lies in history about their health than any other single subject.
- ✓ 6. BE ASSURED THAT THEY WILL NOT BEHAVE AS BADLY IN OFFICE AS THEY DO ON THE CAMPAIGN TRAIL.
They hardly ever are THAT bad.
- ✓ 7. LOOK FOR...
Well, tip #7's a secret. To find out you'll have to hear the lecture!
